

2010 SFWGA Yearbook: Info for Directors

The 2010 SFWGA Yearbook for Percussion & Winter Guard will contain individual pages for each unit (at no cost) as well as circuit information, Happy Grams, and ads from businesses and families. It is 8.5" X 5.5" in size and will have color photos of each team. The Yearbook will be distributed at Championships. Additional information is available at www.premonitiononline.webs.com.

Unit Pages

- Information about each unit will be drawn from the SFWGA website. Unit Directors are responsible for ensuring that the website contains the correct information. The following information will be downloaded for publication in the Yearbook on February 15, 2010:
 - Name of the show and music
 - Names of staff/designers, members, and officers
 - Digital photos of each unit

Submitting Additional Photos for Your Unit

- Directors wishing to submit 1-2 additional unit photos for their official unit page must send those by email to zangaric@gmail.com by February 15, 2010.
- As per SFWGA requirements, these must come from the unit directors and not parents/staff.
- Photos must be submitted digitally in .jpeg or .gif format and no larger than 2 meg.
- Copyrighted photos may not be submitted for publication.
- NOTE: It is the Director's responsibility to ensure that all electronically submitted photos are received. We will respond to all emailed submissions within 72 hours of submission to confirm receipt. If you do not receive a confirmation email, re-send it.

Are Units Limited to a Single Page?

- Each unit will have one page at no cost to the organization.
- Additional pages may be purchased by the units or booster organizations for a fee (as space permits) on a first come, first served basis. If available, additional pages may be purchased by the unit for $60.00 (60% discount on full-page ad).
- Content on additional pages must comply with SFWGA guidelines and be submitted by the Director.
- Pictures and text for supplemental pages are due February 20, 2010.

Purchasing the 2010 Yearbook

- The Yearbook can be purchased for $15.00 at selected SFWGA competitions and online at www.premonitiononline.webs.com.
